Mr. W. F. Peterson, of this city, attended a meeting of the Board of Directors of the river railroad at Parkersburg on Thursday last. There was a great deal of interand enthusiasm manifested at the meeting over the prospect of the early letting of the road to contract. Roans and Jackson counties are flerce competitors for the route from Parkersburg to Charleston, and a line through boths counties will be surveyed. AN INTERESTING WEEK IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 29 .- The past week has been interesting, in a business sense, only for the steady way in which every kind en occurred on the Cass avenue line, of business has started into the spring and en the first car on this road reached summer trade. There has been no hiteenth street and Cass avenue, in what nown locally as "Kerry Patch," in hab-Eighteenth street and Cass avenue, in what is known locally as "Kerry Patch," inhabited mainly by Irish, some filteen or twenty women pelted the driver with mid and threw cold water on him. At Seventh street and Cass avenue some men threw mid and rocks at a car, and again at Eighth street a large party of boys assailed the cars with rocks and mud. No body was burt and no arrests were made. Those of the strikers who still remain out are in a very demoralized condition and on isseem to know what to do. Their meeting at Turner Hall this morning was but alimly attended, and it is quite likely that they will soon dieband.
